

Kunnath Pharma gets patent for its Musli Power X-tra.

Thursday, September 30, 2010 08:00 IST

Our Bureau, Chennai

Kunnath Pharmaceuticals of Moovattupuzha in Kerala has been granted a patent by the Patent Controller of India for its product 'Musli Power X-tra', sources from the company informed Pharmabiz.

The company sources claimed that the ayurvedic product provides complete healthcare and sexual enhancement to its users and is trusted by over five million customers world wide. According to them, granting of patent confirms that the product is formulated with a lot of care and add more reputation and acceptance.

A press release from Kunnath Pharma said experts of government labs have acknowledged the combination of nine ayurvedic ingredients in Musli Power X-tra and the safety in using it for overall health.

“Even facing tough opposition from sources that stooped down to propagating false information, the 100 per cent natural Musli Power X-tra kept its credibility up due to its unsurpassed quality,” the release said.

Dr K C Abraham, managing director, Kunnath Pharmaceuticals said “We are grateful to the authorities for considering our efforts and we are very much proud in receiving this certification. This is an honour for Kunnath Pharmaceuticals and to my team members who are always trying their level best to make Musli Power X-tra, a global success”.